Believe it or Not!

There is going to be a massive ramp built in Rehoboth DE this summer. Rumors are that the builders have an unlimited budget.

The McRad album is doing great in sales, so if you don't have it, check it out!

Jim Howell wins the beef of the month.
While doing an invert, he missed the top with his hand and skimmed his face on the coping. Will the girls still crave him?

It was heard that Dave Gardner was pulling off "finger flip boneless ones" at the 896 ditch. You wouldn't lie to us, would you Dave?

Chuck Treece's ramp in Philly shreds.
It's Tom Groholski's little fiberglass ramp. Two weeks ago an outrageous session took place. Chuck, Jim Tesnar, Monty Nolder, Zeke Zegar and Mark Germak were all there. The whole session was filmed on a VCR. Now the ramp has been moved.

An Overlook Pool Session is gonna take place as soon as Rodney (owner) gives us the OK. C'mon, Rodney, Boys will be Boys. Let the kids have some fun.
Pics of the session will be in the next issue of Spunk.

Rumor has it that Julie Odell might be Spunk's betty of the month. OK Julie, you are. Now, are you happy?

Powell is coming out with a McGill/Cab wheel.

The faction's new EP is called "Corpse in Disguise"

McRad is gonna be on the new Skate rock tape with TSOL, JFA, The Faction, Suicidal Tendencies and others.

As Jim Tesnar acid drops off a 6 ft.
ledge at u of D, he is approached by Officer Friendly who stoically says,
"That's a nice stunt, but the university can't afford a lawsuit, so don't do it."
Jim says, "Gee!"

HOT WAX by Johnny Gnarler

McRad "Dominant Force"

Excellent tunes from this Philly hardcore band. Also, some good sound quality. Side A is the hardcore side. Best cuts are Acid Drop, Rest Haven, and Greed. The vocals rip. Side B is reggae-ish. No Guns and Forget those Years would even make Bob Marley stand and take notice. For one copy, send $4.50 to McRad, c/o Chuck Treece, 5616 Cedar Ave, Phila. PA 19143. A sticker comes with each disc.

The Alarm "Declaration"

Really aggressive stuff here from what many people say are a Clash rip off. I think it's a good rip off. The lyrics are really interesting. Best cuts include the MTV hit 68 Guns, Third light, Marching On, and Blaze of Glory. They are also hot live. Also, this album is inexpensive, it's one of those good IRS deals.

BLACK FLAG "My War"

This is a very diverse disc, not bad. Just diverse. Side 1 is like the Black Flag we all know and thrash to. My War, I Love You, and Beat my Head against the Wall are songs that make you want to eat your neighbors. Side Two is very slow, somewhat like flipper, but not nearly as good. Do you remember buying Devo discs and seeing all the Devo paraphernalia you could buy? In My War there is a paper with a load of BF propaganda to purchase (even a BF board) Whoah! Hey!

The Dickies "Stukas over Disneyland"

This long awaited record from this "silly" band from Cal was worth the wait. It shreds. They haven't lost their touch. Classic cuts include She's a hunchback, Pretty Please Me, and if Stuart could Talk. All of the songs are fast and have that cool Dickies' humor. Hot drumming! It's a bargain!!

The Butthole Surfers

This band's name is so cool it even made my folks chuckle. "I'll smoke Elvis Presley's toenails when I wanna get high" is just one of the many rad lyrics. The Shah Sleeps in Lee Harvey's grave. Hey, and BBQ Pope are cool bangers. Their sound is something, sometimes thrash, PILish, and hardcore, Aerosmith vocals. Boy what a description. I don't know if I can comprehend it. Anyway, this is a hot record.

The Cramps "Small of Female"

Yow!! Yow! Yow! This is so hot it nearly spins by itself. This is a live EP recorded at the Peppermint Lounge in NYC. Best cuts are I ain't nothing but a Gorehound and You've got Good Taste. Lux's vocals shred even if he's got the microphone wedged down his throat.

Jimmy and the Mustangs

This is a hot 6 song EP if you're into rockabilly. It blows away many rockabilly R&B bands. Justine and Bad Detective are great. Jimmy's vocals really fit the progressive music that is laid down. Also, cool/bass!

GAINESVILLE OR BUST

The van is loaded and we're off. 10 minutes down the road, Mike forgets his camara, so we turn around. The next 15 hours are full of driving, eating munchies, sleeping, and getting on each others' nerves.

Once we get to Fla, the van breaks down. So Julie puts on her rollerskates and Jim starts to street skate to pass the time, waiting for the mechanic to show up. 10 minutes later, still no mechanic, and Scott magically starts the van and we bail. Sorry Mr. Goodwrench.

Upon arriving at Jacksonville, Scott drops us off at the stadium to wait for our ride to G*ville. Scott and the boys then proceed to go surfing. "I hope Rich gets here," I keep saying to myself. More street skating to pass time. At 12:30 I hear a voice yell, "Jim..." Yes. Yow. It's Rich, and he's only 3 hours late.

In G-ville, Rich shows us many banks. There was a really hot one at the GPA building at the university. This is where we meet Sol. He's a skinhead skate type. Sol takes us to Ricky's pool. This pool has an 8' transition and 1 foot of vert. Jim starts shredding. Julie starts shooting colored shots. Sol rips backside grinds reminiscent of the old Jay Adams. Everything was hunky dory until the men in blue showed up and tell us that the country club does not want a law suit. I'm not gonna sue, Sol's not gonna sue. But we still are escorted out. What nice gentlemen.

That night we hit the Pretenders / Alarm gig. Really hot & energetic. On the way back we run into Jamie and Logan, two surf-looking dudes and really cool guys. They take us to a 16' wide halfpipe. We start to session, but then Logan falls on his head, and Jamie "Speed racer" races him to the hospital. "Wasn't that the third red light you ran Jamie?" This dude drives gnarly but precisely. Logan has a mild concussion.

The next day, Sol shows us a skate shop and Julie buys some Kryptonics for her skates. Now she's really happy. Then Sol shows us a small half pipe. We skate it, have fun, and bail.

That weekend we met many skate types at the "Rock against Reagan" concert. Bruce, McQuiggen, Doug, etc. Are all cool.

The rest of the week we skate, sleep, eat burritos, hangout, watch R&R High school 5 times, buy cool stickers, eat at Lil' Champ, skate with Sol, talk to McQuiggen and Doug, and dread the ride home.

Spunk,

I got your zine from a friend. It shreds! Here's my stamp. Flow me a copy immediatly. I don't want to be left out. I may be a betty, but I still want to keep abreast on the action. That's what separates us betties from lame skate groupies. Keep up the great work.

Sincerely,

Dawn Dzedzy
wilmington, DE

Spunk,

I'm going to be moving to PA. ~~the~~ in June. Could you fill me in on the scene around Philly and the rest of the states? I plan on building a half pipe when I move there.

Now, in Atlanta we have about 5 or 6 halfpipes that I know of. Mine is 12 feet wide with 12 feet of flat. Down here the scene is growing very fast.
